Flies A Liberator

LT. RAY N. McCALL

Lt. Ray N. McCall is now overseas with units of the United States Army airforces. He was commissioned on June 26, 1943, at Forster Field, Victoria, getting his wings as a pilot.

Lt. McCall reported to the air field at Pueblo, Colorado, for training with the Liberator and is now overseas. He is the son of Mrs. Ora B. McCall who was the former Claudia Bell Henderson. While Lt. McCall has been living in Beaumont for a number of years, he has a number of relatives here and many friends who will be glad to have this word of him.

Lt. McCall is the grandson of G. W. Henderson of the Walkers Creek community.

MRS. ALICE THOMPSON DIES LATE WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Thompson, 80, will be held at 2 p. m. Friday, December 24th, 1943, from the Coleman Funeral Home in Cameron with interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Thompson died at the home of her son, Louis Mitchell at Clarkson, December 22. She had contracted influenza which set up complications and developed pneumonia.

Mrs. Thompson, mother of Henderson Thompson of Cameron, was a native of Arkansas, born in Columbus county in 1863. Her maiden name was Miss Lou Alice Wimberley

Surviving are five sons and one daughter as follows: Louie Mitchell of Clarkson, Lloyd Mitchell of Cameron, John Mitchell of Dayton, Henderson Thompson of Cameron and Paul Thompson of Temple, and Mrs. John Blazon of Bryan.

Humble Oil-Refining Co., Will Broadcast Cotton Bowl Game

Following a custom inaugurated with the first Cotton Bowl game, the Humble Oil and Relining Company will again broadcast this traditional football classic New Year's Day. This year's Cotton Bowl contenders will be the Texas University Longhorns, winners of the 1943 Southwest Conference and the Randolph Field Ramblers, one of the leading service teams in the nation. Two veteran Humble announcers will be on hand to report the proceedings. At 1 p. m. Ves Box will open the broadcast with a description of the colorful pre-game activities. At game time—a few minutes later Kern Tips will take over for a play by play report of the game. Stations which will carry the game are members of the Texas Quality net work—KPRC, Houston, WFAA, Dallas; WOAI, San Antonio; as well as KNOW, Austin; KRIS, Corpus Christi; and KRGV, Weslaco.

CHESLEY WHITE DIES AT MINERVA HOME

Chesley White, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy White of Minerva, died at the family residence there at 12:30 Tuesday, December 28, 1943. He had been afflicted since birth. Prior to his death he had been ill for a short time.

Funeral services were to be held at 4 p. m. from the chapel of the Green Funeral Home in Cameron with Rev. C. W. Sanders, Pastor First Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Minerva cemetery.

Surviving are his father and mother, one sister, Margaret; three brothers Joe Allen, Billie Carl and Jimmy Ray.

A Happy and Prosperous New Year

POLITICAL YEAR 1944 JUST AROUND CORNER

As 1943 rapidly is becoming history many looked to the New Year and began thinking about what it will bring to the people.

Aside from the war the chief topic of national interest will be the election. Will Roosevelt ask a fourth term? Will the war end? If the President does not become a candidate, will be have a choice? What effect will a Republican victory have on the establishment of Peace? These and many other questions are being asked.

The politicial importance of 1944 may be understood when one thinks a moment of the far flung front, for not only do we have national politics but State, County, Precinct and City. There is an old expression "from constable to president," and that just about covers the scope for 1944.

In 1916 the Democrats lost control of congress but re-elected President Wilson. In 1920 Warren G. Harding was elcted President. In the mean time the treaty of Versailles had been scrapped by the American senate and the groundwork for World War No. 2 was laid. The issue in 1944 will be domestice, no doubt, but in the main it should hinge upon the writing of a Peace treaty to secure the things for which we fight. If the Republicans win and permit Germany to escape as they did 25 years ago, serious consequences may ensue for the nation and the world.

Briefly, the politicial year starts in early 1944 with city elections. The city elections include a February primary and a general election in April. This will be followed by a school trustee election if the stupor is not too thick.

In May Precinct Presidential Primaries are held in which voters may express their choice for President This is followed by a county convention at which delegates are named to the state convention where in turn national delegates are named to nominate a candidate for President. The election follows in November.

County and state politics are concurrent. Usually the campaign gets under way early each two years, depending on the crop of candidates. The Democratic Primary in Texas is held on the fourth Saturday in July at which time party nominees are named for all county and state offices. The election as in case of the selection of a president, occurs in November. United States senators and members of Congress are elected with as much frequency as a precinct or city officer—each two years.

Eugene Barmore Back Home After Year In The South Pacific

Six months on Guadalcanal and in the first wave of navy men to land on the beaches of Bouganville along with a lot of other experiences, is roughly the story of Eugene Barmore, Fireman First Class, who has just returned to Cameron for his first furlough since he entered service in August 1942.

Barmore is serving on a transport and is in the engineering service of the navy. His outfit landed on Guadalcanal in January 1943. At that time the Marines had already cleaned out a 7 mile beach head. The Japs came over that day to strafe the boats as they pulled toward shore. "We only lost one man," said Barmore, who operated one of the landing boats both at Guadalcanal and on Bouganville. For a while he said they lived in Foxholes. The Japs had been driven back into the hills but occasionally a sniper would get in some work.

At night, especially when the moon was bright Japanese planes would come over and strafe the camps. Sometimes the boys would sleep in their boats anchored off shore.

After landing Barmore got an assignment to the shop where equipment is maintained. This shop, housed in a tent was set up in the cocoa nuts and thanks to American ingenuity was functioning with great efficiency, now that parts are coming through.

Barmore was in the second wave of boats that hit Bouganville and here the Japs tried to prevent their landing from the air. The surf was so bad, he said that many boats were lost. He saved his boat by going to the beach and discharging part of the load, then setting the pumps to work

Celebrate Golden Wedding Day

MR. AND MRS. ALLEN VARNER OF GAUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Varner Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary Sunday, December 26th; Were Married In Gause Fifty Years Ago

Married 50 years ago in the little city in which they still live, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Varner observed their Golden Wedding Day Sunday, December 26, 1943, in their home, receiving friends and neighbors from 3 to 7 p. m.

The Varner wedding was a social event of great interest and the first church wedding held in Gause. They were married on Dec. 21, 1893. The church was a combination for worship and a school. The International and Great Northern Railroad had been built only a few years and Gause was beginning to take shape as a railroad town. Much history has been written in the half century Mr. and Mrs. Varner have lived happily together.

Surrounded by friends and neighbors, including a number who were in the wedding party that day 50 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Varner spent happy hours Sunday, heard themselves justly praised for their good lives in the community, and listened with revival of memories to the stories told by neighbors of the eventful day when a shiny new carriage drawn by white horses and driven by the groom, circled the village school and stopped at the church. The bride was beautiful in a wedding gown of white albatross with long bridal veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a boquet of white chrystanthemums.

The groom wore a black double breasted conventional wedding suit and white gloves. From the carriage they marched into the church where Rev. J. W. Stephens, pastor of the Gause Baptist Church, awaited them at the altar. The ceremony was impressive. For miles men and women came and the little church was filled to overflowing with well wishers.

It was the first church wedding held in Gause. A reception was held at the Varner home immediately following the ceremony. That night they drove their carriage to Milano. It was their wedding trip. They spent the night in the home of the late J D. Peebles and Mrs. Peebles and had their wedding breakfast in the Peebles home next morning. Milano was just 9 miles away but in a carriage drawn by white horses it was a considerable distance. The next day they returned to Gause where the home in which they now live was ready for them.

On the wedding day the bridal party met in the Varner home, the same residence in which they celebrated their Golden Wedding Sunday. The party went to the church in buggies. The bride and groom drove a span of beautiful white horses.

There were six bridesmaids and six groomsmen. One of the brides maids is Mrs. Sue Baskin of Cameron, daughter of the late Dr. J. M. Dollar, a pioneer physician who practiced medicine in Gause. Here are the names of the bridesmaids in the wedding 50 years ago: Mrs. Dean Ferguson, Gause; Mrs. Edd Fowler Georgetown; Mrs. Sue Baskin, Cameron; Mrs. J. A. Ely, Gause; (deceased) Mrs. R. T. Littleton, Gause; (deceased) Mrs. Ludie Cochran, Gause; (deceased.)

The grooms were: R. T. Littleton, Gause; J. A. Ely, Gause; Clarence Varner, Houston; Theo Eggleston, Los Angeles, Cailf.; Sam Little, Knox City, Texas; Jimmie Cox, Gause; (de-

J. F. GAITHER IS BURIED IN SAN ANTONIO DEC. 23

Funeral services for J. F. Gaither, 73, brother of W. E. Gaither of Cameron and Rockdale, were held Thursday, December 23, 1943, from the Harveston & Cole Funeral Chapel in Fort Worth, with interment in Mission burial Park in San Antonio in the afternoon.

The body was intered in Mission Park by the side of the wife and daughter.

J. F. Gaither was born January 12, 1870, in Salisbury, North Carolina, the eldest son of Dr. John B. Gaither and Mary Elizabeth Gaither. He died December 22, 1943, and was 73 years of age.

He came to Texas in 1903 and was associated with his brother, W. E. Gaither then manager of the Mistrot Bros. & Company in Rockdale. From 1905 until his retirement he was a traveling salesman, representing the Quaker Oats Company of St. Joseph, Mo., in Texas and Oklahoma. For a number of years after accepting the traveling job the family lived in Waco, but for the past 30 years had lived in Fort Worth. At the time of Mr. Gaither's death he was making his home at 2221 Harrison Street in Fort Worth.

Mr. Gaither was preceded in death by his wife, Mrs. Helen Gaither, and daughter, Helen Gruiton Gaither. Surviving are one son, Lt. J. F. Gaither, Jr., who is stationed with the United States Army Signal Photo Company, No. 166, at Camp Crowder, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. M. G. Robinson and niece, Mary Graham Robinson, Charlotte, North Carolina; a brother J. C. Gaither, Jr., of Fort Worth, W. E. Gaither of Cameron; a nephew two nices, Mary and Ann Gaither of Fort Worth.

REDS NEAR RUMANIAN BORDER IN NEW PUSH

The new Red drive in the Kiev bulge had led the Russians to within 16 miles of Zhitomir. Not far away is the Rumanian border.

It was generally agreed that when the Red army reaches the Balkans a turning point of great consequence will have been reached.

Thus the Red army is pushing over the 40 miles lost in the great German counter blow of late November.

War developments may soon be confined to this area of operation as a new command calls for invasion. This will take months. The Germans were reinforcing their Italian front. On New Britain the Marines using tanks were pushing rapidly on to the Gloucester air base.

"Kansan" Is New Year Feature at Milam Theatre

Should you, in a weak moment, ever decide to become a motion picture producer, there is one cardinal rule you should know. Never, never make a motion picture without a fight. Almost any kind of fight will do. But see that at least one is included.

Harry Sherman, producer of historical films and programs westerns, vouches for this formula. For instance, this is his recipe for making a success of his film, "The Kansan," the locale of which is a frontier town of the 1870's.

First he assembled a stellar cast including Richard Dix, Jane Wyatt, Albert Dekker, Victor Jory, Eugene Pallette, Robert Armstrong and Francis McDonald. Then he added 200 extras and 35 stunt girls. Next he topped it off with an armful of chorus cuties headed by orchidaceous Beryl Wallace, late of Earl Carroll's Vanities. Then he touched off the wildest saloon fight ever staged for the screen.

"The Kansan" comes to the Cameron Theatre, Saturday, January 1.

DECEMBER IN HISTORY

December 28, 1856—Born, Woodrow Wilson, 28th President of the United States.

Mrs. Maude Hiller of Cameron is visiting her daughter in Waco.

LEAVES MEDITERRANEAN FOR NEW LONDON POST

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, named by President Roosevelt to lead the invasion of Europe from England, in a farewell conference with newspaper correspondents at his headquarters in the Mediterranean area said early Monday that the war in Europe will be won in 1944.

General Eisenhower did not qualify the statement in any way. This opinion by the General who has been elevated to a place as high or higher than that to which Marshal Foch of France was named in World War No. 1, was regarded throughout the world as a final summing up of the task ahead.

Fixing the year 1944 as the period in which Germany will be defeated indicates that plans are well in hand for the final stages of the battle which calls for an invasion at several points on the continent.

It was presumed that General Eisenhower would leave his Mediterranean headquarters soon for London. When the United States entered the war in 1941 General Eisenhower was sent to London where in June he began his work for the landing in North Africa.

When he goes to London to take command for the coming battle to defeat Germany, with him will go Gen. Bernard Montogomery of the British 8th Army who has been the most consistent winner in this war among Allied generals and regarded over the world as one of the greatest generals of his time.

To those Americans who have been waiting for two years and more for the blow that had been promised day by day, the statement of General Eisenhower may come with great satisfaction. At last we are to come to grips with the enemy with a land invasion, the only military operation which can decide the issue.

A. A. BRUSH DIES IN CAMERON WEDNESDAY

Funeral services for Archie A Brush, 50, who died in the Newton Memorial Hosiptal at 8:45 o'clock Wednesday morning, will be held some time Friday pending arrangements which are to be made upon receipt of information from relatives.

Mr. Brush a veteran of World War No. 1, was born in Peoria Ill., and had lived in Cameron for the past 20 years.

The body will be at the Marek-Burns Funeral Home in Cameron where funeral arrangements will be directed when word is received from relatives.

Mr. Brush served in Aerial Squadrons 93 and 114 in World War No. 1, and spent 27 months overseas. He was known to hundreds of friends here as Shorty Brush. For years he was a member of the American Legion. He had been in bad health since 1926.

Surviving are his widow and other relatives, most of whom live in Peoria, Ill.

Bell Salvage Co. Ships Much Scrap

G. W. Barr of the Bell Salvage Company, reports large shipments of scrap from their yards here.

Within the past 45 days he has shipped 84,960 pounds of scrap iron, a car load of old automobile tires; 840 batteries and 600 pounds of scrap metals.

Judge and Mrs. Jeff T. Kemp have returned from a few days visit with his brother, L. W. Kemp and wife, and enjoyed a family reunion of the Kemp family, and observed the 49th wedding anniversary of their marriage. Next year they will celebrate their Golden Wedding in Cameron. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of Jackson, Miss., who were married at the same time of the Kemp-Roger wedding, were present and are making their plans to be here for the Cameron celebration next year.

Among the many appreciated Christmas cards reaching the desk of the Herald publisher is one from Cpl. Walter F. Hess. He is now with the army in Seattle, Washington. Many old time friends will be glad to have this word from Cpl. Hess, who for many years was with the Bluebonnet Cafe.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"God" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 2.

The Golden Text is: "Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God" (Rev. 21:3.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands." (Acts 17:24.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is infinite, the only Life, substance, Spirit, or Soul, the only intelligence of the universe, including man" (Page 330.)

CARD OF THANKS

RED ARTILLERY ROCKS WEST GERMAN LINES

What a London dispatch said was one of the heaviest artillery attacks of the war was driving the Germans back upon the approaches to Vitebsk, key rail city.

The fighting resulted in the killing of several thousand Germans and the capture of 20 more populated villages. In one sector of the front the Germans launched 16 counter attacks, all being thrown back by the Reds.

Christmas eve was dark for the Germans. They were fighting a losing battle in Italy as well as on the Eastern front. The air war was being carried to Germany with a new tempo of fury.

A Moscow communication said that Red troops were pouring through the breached German lines at Vitebsk like an avalanche.

What do You like about Coffee

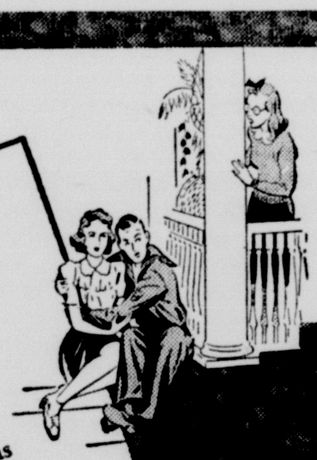
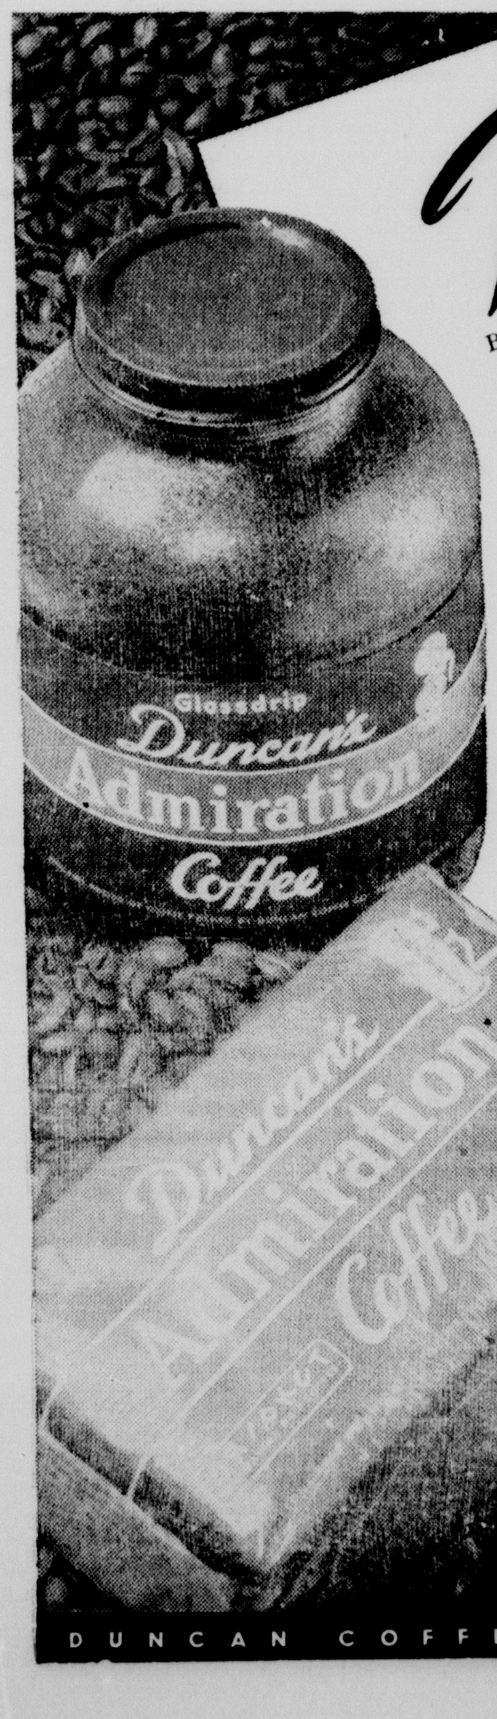
Blend?





Blend covers a multitude of personal tastes—and sometimes as many different coffees! Ten chances to one you couldn't tell a Manizales from a Medillin. Or a Guatemala from a Bucaramanga. Or a Sevilla from something else. And you needn't blush from ignorance either. Only a relatively few people in all the world can. They're the coffee blenders.

In the skilled, experienced hands of the men who blend admiration, these expensive coffees—and many others—are prized, precious materials. One is used here, sparingly perhaps, for body and richness; another there for mellowness; others in varying measure for aroma or flavor or strength and so on. When blended together under the Admiration formula—that's it, you know why Admiration is Texas' Largest Seller! This blend of the very finest green coffees, roasted to an exquisite flavor, and always fresh, will win your applause at the first sip. Try a pound today.

KIEV BULGE SCENE NEW RED ATTACKS

The great rail network supply between Odessa and Warsaw in Poland was under virtual encirclement as the Russian army suddenly launched a strong attack in the Kiev front.

A London dispatch early Tuesday said that the Russian Ukraine army had plunged to within 17 miles of the vital rail center and that the German radio broadcasts indicated that grave concern was felt for the German army in that area.

So sudden and powerful was the attack that the Russians are now approaching the Rumanian border. The Berlin radio said that some 500 thousand Red troops were in the attack.

Apparently the attack was aimed at trapping many German divisions in the great elbow of the Dneiper River.

The Japs are frightened. Premier Tojo has told the Japanese people that the situation is grave and that the empire will survive or fall over events of the near future.

Marines landing on Gloucester on New Britain Island, have pushed inland and are heading for Rabaul.

On the home front Union Labor had launched a new offensive to capture the United States Treasury. President Roosevelt seized the rail roads in an effort to defeat Labor's harmful tactics and to insure transportation.

"Claudia" Hailed As Something New and Unusual

"Claudia," that gay, enchanting, half-woman, half-girl, half-angel half-devil, is coming to the screen at Cameron Theatre Thursday and Friday, December and 31.

And long awaited news it is, to the millions who have followed the adventures of that charming, unpredictable, typically American young lady in the pages of Redbook magazine, as a novel, as a sensational Broadway success, and as a tremendously popular radio program.

The most magnetic, refreshing young personality to reach the American public in years, "Claudia" is the creation of the famed novelist and playwright, Rose Franken.

Of Dorothy McGuire, who enacted the title role on the stage, so many critics said, "She is Claudia" and "Claudia is Dorothy McGuire," that there could be no other choice for the role on the screen. Robert Young plays her husband, the half-baffled, wholly understanding and loving husband, David. And as a tremendously pleasant surprise, Ina Claire is seen as "Claudia's" mother.

Into "Claudia's pleasantly rural and rather frivolous existence come many distrurbing things. She meets a cosmopolitan British play-wright played brillinatly by Reginald Gardiner, who is intrigued by her whimsical charm.

Tragedy strikes Claudia when she learns her beloved mother is doomed to die. Yet at the same time she learns that she is to become a mother. Thus with the realization that life and death work hand in hand, she suddenly matures.

STRIKE THREAT BRINGS SEIZURE OF RAILROADS

Seizure of the nation's railroads was ordered by President Roosevelt at 7 p. m. Monday.

On the same date 26 years ago President Wilson took over the railroads because Union Labor refused to go on working in the crisis. All but 3 of the operating unions late Monday had voted to cancel strikes set for December 30.

The United States army will operate the railroads now that the government has seized them.

The operating unions voted to strike because their wage demands had not been met.

The President in taking over the roads said that there must be no interruption in the progress of the war. Union Labor apparently had no concern for the safety of the nation or whether the war could be prosecuted without let up.

R. W. Kennon Gravely Ill in Hospital at Ranger, Says Message

R. W. H. Kennon, widely known Texas newspaper man in the old days and a brother of the late Crockett Kennon here, was gravely ill in a Ranger hospital Tuesday.

A telegram received by Ben Kennon, nephew, said that Mr. Kennon, advanced in age, was in a dying condition. An effort was being made here to get all possible information regarding his condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wiley of Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wiley of Port Arthur visited their mother, Mrs. Robert Wiley for a few days and went to San Antonio from here, to visit their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wine. They were accompanied by their mother who will spend two weeks or longer with her children. It was reunion of the Wiley family and their wive's.

Dependable POWER to Care for the Sick and Wounded

DEPENDABLE electric service is a vital necessity in the work of a hospital—particularly in the operating room. Texas Power & Light Company is serving two Army General Hospitals, one of which requires as much electricity as normally used by the homes and business houses of a city of 10,000 people.

This Company was ready to supply every electric service need of these great hospitals before their construction was completed.

Texas Power & Light Company has repeatedly demonstrated its ability to deliver dependable electric service ahead of demand to military installations and war industries. It has met all demands promptly and efficiently in the 52-county area it serves and has helped other companies and government agencies meet critical power needs for the war program in adjoining areas.

That there has been no power shortage, that electricity has not been rationed in these strenuous days of ever-mounting demand, is the result of a policy of always planning ahead of actual needs. Such planning by the Texas Power & Light Company and hundreds of other companies which have grown up under the American system of free enterprise, has made it possible for our country to become the great Arsenal of Democracy.

To win the war as quickly as possible, and to preserve the American Way of Life forever against the schemes and ambitions of all Hitlers, Hirohitos and other such dictators, we are devoting the fullest possible measure of our strength, our facilities and the skill and experience of our entire organization.

B. P. & W. CLUB MEET

The Business & Professional Women's Club met in a social session Tuesday evening for their annual Christmas party, with the President, Mrs. Katheryne K. Robbins, presiding. At a short business session held early in the evening, the club voted to send subscription to the "Readers Digest" to the McCloskey Hospital soldiers for the coming year.

Miss Annie Stallworth and Adolph Winfield were joint hostesses for a lovely chicken dinner with all accessories, served in the dining room of the Club. Mrs. Emma Butts was a guest beside the members.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jackson are the happy parents of a daughter born to them at the Cameron Hospital Tuesday morning, Dec. 28th, that weighed 7 pounds, and has been named Frances Marie Jackson.

Two of the bridesmaids were dressed in pink, two in blue and two in white. The groomsmen all wore dark suits.

On Sunday, December 26, 1943, when the Golden Anniversary Celebration was held, the couple received from 3 to 7 p. m. There were many to attend, from Gause, surrounding towns and many from other Texas cities. Members of the original wedding party who attended wore corsages and bouteniers of gold and white chrysanthemums and white carnations.

Those of the original wedding party 50 years ago who attended the Golden Anniversary Sunday were: Mrs. Dean Ferguson, Gause; Mrs. Edd Fowler, Georgetown; Mrs. Sue Baskin, Cameron; J. A. Ely, Gause and R. T. Littleton, Gause. The bride and groom were charming as ever in their home to receive their friends, their 50 years of romance and happiness the occasion of the celebration.

The home was beautiful for its decorations and the charm of guests. Table decorations included a miniature bridal party on a white satin aisle which adorned center of the lace cover, and over which hung a large gold bell, topped by a garland of leaves which enclosed the word Fifty in gold letters. Silver service adorned both ends of the tables from which coffee and tea were served. Cookies, sandwiches, candies, etc., were also served. The dining room was lighted by silver and brass candlelabraes filled with long white tapers. Mrs. T. E. Evans of Dallas; Mrs. Joe Moore of Gause and Mrs. Dillard Baker of Houston, poured coffee and tea.

Master Bobby Doty, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Varner and Mrs. Jim Harland, presided at the guest book tables.

Entertainment during open house included a talk by Judge Graham Gillis and Judge Jeff T. Kemp. Rev John Boykin, Pastor Gause Baptist Church, also talked. Music program was a follows: Duet, Mrs. R. E. Doty and Rev. Boykin; Songs were: "Silver Threads Among the Gold." "When You and I Were Young Maggie."

Brief talks were made by members of the original wedding party and some who attended the wedding in 1893.

Here are the names of others who attended the wedding 50 years ago and also attended the Golden Wedding Celebration in 1943: F. D. Fowler, Gause; Mrs. J. D. Peebles, Milano; Mrs. Laura Green, Hearne; Lonnie Gee, Ada, Okla.; C. W. Moore, Gause; Mrs. W. R. Harrell, Gause, Mrs. J. W. Partridge, Gause; Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Houston; Mrs. D. B. Cox, Houston; Mrs. Nora White Parnell, Hearne; Mrs. Mattie Ditto, Gause.

Guests during the afternoon included many from the state and out of state: Among those were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thomas, Berlin, Wis., Fred Bronsdon, Neenah, Wis., Bobby Bronsdon, Neenah, Wis., Mrs. Robert Doty, daughter, and Bobby Doty, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Varner, and from Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Evans, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Taylor, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cox, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Houston; Mrs. Walter Stevenson of Kaufmann, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Edge, Bryan; Mr. and Mrs. Hern Johnson, Beaumont; Mrs W. W. Weaver, Bryan; Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephens, Rockdale; Mrs. Green, Hearne; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Moore, Crystal City; Miss Mary Sue Moore, Houston; Cpl. Keith Davis, Thorndale; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Camp of Rockdale.

Mrs. J. W. Partridge, Gause—"It was my first wedding, my heart nearly pounded out of me. I was so scared. I had never seen anything so beautiful before. Miss Dudley looked like a dainty little fairy queen in that lovely wedding gown and veil and I remember how handsome Mr Allen looked in his black wedding suit. I even remember Miss Dudley's "second day" dress. It was a lovely heliotrope cashmere."

Lonnie Gee, Ada, Okla.—"Do I remember that wedding—just as if it were yesterday. I will never forget those beautiful white horse Mr. Allen was driving. I can see them now they circled the school building two or three times. All of us kids were lined up to see the sight."

Charlie Moore of Gause—"There never was a prettier wedding anywhere. And you know it doesn't seem to long ago. Just yesterday."

Mrs. Lewis Parnell of Hearne—"I was a young child, but that beautiful wedding which was the first I had ever seen will always stand out in my memory."

Mrs. Buster Harwell of Gause—"Why Dudley, I remember your wedding as if it were yesterday. I even remember just how your dress was made with all of its scolloped pleats and frills."

Mrs. J. D. Peeples, Sr., of Milano—"Dudley is Mr. Peeple's niece. We attended the wedding of course. We felt awfully proud of the whole affair. It was beautiful. The bride and groom's wedding trip was to Milano to spend the night and have their wedding breakfast with us."

F. D. Fowler of Gause—"The first church wedding this little community of Gause was ever privileged to see. It was a real event."

Mrs. Sue Baskin of Cameron—"Allen couldn't wait until he showed me the wedding gown. The old Gause house was decorated beautifully, believe it or not."

Little Jimmie Law, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Law, has been ill with pneumonia, but is reported to be some better.

he would back off from shore and get the water out of the barge. Breakers would fill the boats and sink them.

Aside from being in the hospital 35 days from malaria Barmore has suffered no injury from his long service. "I don't want to go back. No one does but I may not be able to control that. Right now some shore duty would be the thing for me."

Barmore enlisted a volunteer at Hearne. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barmore and a nephew of J. L. Barmore of Cameron. A brother, Roy Barmore, has just been given a physical discharge from the army.

The Marines built stockades for prisoners but never took one. When the army came in they took a few prisoners. They loaded them aboard ships like so much cargo.

Barmore was loud in his praise of the air force. He stood on the beaches at Guadalcanal and Bougainville to witness two great air battle. Early in June some 100 Jap planes came over. When the Americans got through with them it was doubtful if more than 6 were left, if any at all. The favorite there is the P-38. "Our airmen never failed to get a Jap once they took after him."

Have a Coca-Cola = Let's be friendly

...a way to win a welcome wherever you go

Where you find democracy, you find the feeling of friendliness, of give-and-take—the spirit of neighborliness. It's made up of little things that mark a way of life: sports, fair play, movies, comics and swing music. A simple phrase like Have a "Coke" turns strangers into friends, the same in both hemispheres. Around the globe, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the high-sign of the good-hearted.

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".

Personal Mention

Rev. and Mrs. Glenn Flinn of Dallas, spent the holidays here with Mrs. E. A. Flinn and family. While here Rev. Flinn preached from Methodist pupit Sunday night. Both Rev. Flinn and wife have many friends in and around Cameron.

Mrs. Charlie Knipp honored her young daughter, Carolyn Knipp, with a birthday party Tuesday morning celebrating her third birthday, at their home. A number of little friends gathered for games and all presented the honoree with pretty gifts as they entered, which the little receiver thanked them in her own sweet manner. A pretty birthday cake bearing three red tapers was the gift of Mrs. Dwight Moody who presided over the cake and assisted the hostess. Games and a general good time was had, and all left wishing little Caroyln many happy returns of the occasion.

Mrs. Bennie Carter of Sweetwater is in Cameron visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Alice McGee is visiting her brothers and sister in Houston for a few weeks.

Develop Tropic War Supplies

Vital Raw Materials Are Grown in Ten Southern Republics.

NEW YORK.—Marked progress in production of natural rubber, manila hemp, roselle, rotenone, rice, cocoa and other strategic and essential crops is reported by the United Fruit company in a document that covers eight months from July of last year and deals with efforts to replace, in ten countries of Central and South America, the raw materials from which this country was shut off by the Japanese invasions of Malaya and the Netherlands Indies.

"The crops being introduced," said the report, "include Hevea and Castilloa trees, the two major sources of natural rubber; abaca, the source of manila-type rope; roselle, an important jute substitute used extensively in cordage and bagging; rotenone, an important and strategic insecticide; rice, a foremost cereal food of the American tropics; cocoa and chocolate, a principal food beverage and one of the most popular flavors; loofa or vegetable sponges, a substitute for the natural sponges in machine servicing; castor oil, a standard medicine and strategic machine lubricant; soy beans, still little developed in the American tropics; peanuts, of which the United States has never yet produced a sufficient domestic supply; the essential oils, which include citronella, vetiver and lemongrass oil, all of strategic as well as routine commercial importance; the strategic tropical hardwoods, including mahogany, cedar, teakwood and East Indian rosewood, and tung nut oil, now urgently needed in war manufactures.

Plant in Seven Countries.

"At present all these commodities are in shortage throughout much or all of this hemisphere. All have noteworthy roles in war industries and war plans. With the exception of peanuts and soy beans (both of which originated in the tropics), all are tropical crops.

"Experimental and practical plantings of all the crops are in progress or have been made in Guatemala, Honduras, Costa Rica, Panama, Haiti, Ecuador and Colombia. With the exception of abaca and roselle, which the company is planting on order of the Defense Supply corporation, all the deficit crops are being introduced or established at company expense.

"The crop introducing and proving enterprises now range over an agricultural front of approximately 2,800 miles—from the Dominican Republic to Tenguel, Ecuador. At the former point the United Fruit company has concluded the purchase, without profit to itself, of large quantities of the seed of Cryptostegia or rubber vine for delivery to the Rubber supply corporation.

Reserve in Abaca Stock.

"In Ecuador the company's current crop development work is centered on developing two locally and internationally important food crops—rice and cocoa. To date no Latin-American country has produced more than a tiny fraction of its rice requirements.

"In Colombia the United Fruit company is planting an experimental plot of Hevea trees, the standard and best proved source of natural rubber. In Panama the company has established another experimental plot of Hevea and successfully planted a total of 6,461 acres of abaca. In 1925 the company first began establishing an abaca seed farm near Almirante, Panama. When the Far East sources of abaca were blocked by Japanese conquests this planting (then extended to more than 2,000 acres) became the hemisphere's only reliable reservoir of abaca planting stock.

Save Shoes and Rice, Wedding Guests Told

SOUTH BEND, IND.—Frank H. Sibley, Office of Price Administration director for 17 counties, said that war-time weddings are nothing to celebrate, and frowned on the attending tomfoolery. Mr. Sibley asked wedding guests to cease throwing rice and old shoes. Shoes are rationed and rice is scarce, he said, and both ought to be conserved.

He also disapproved of tying tin cans to automobile bumpers when they should be flattened and given to war-scrap collectors.

Bandit Takes Gas Book And Auto to Use Them

DODGE CITY, KAN. — Crimes have changed since cattle rustlers used to dangle from trees.

Perry Hale, dairy employee, told officers two men held him up with six-shooters, took his A and B gasoline books—and his auto license plates so they could use the books.

His Draft Card Hiding Place Was for Men Only

SAN JOSE, CALIF.—A San Jose youth, asked by United States Commissioner Hall to show his draft card, stated he could not do so in the presence of a lady. The commissioner's secretary left the room. The youth then lowered his trousers, extracted the card from the upper seams of his shorts, and said: "It is a valuable document and I didn't want to lose it."

Houston—Herschel and Charles Duncan sole owners of the Duncan Coffee Company, announced today for the 25th consecutive year participation of their 350 employees in the company's annual profits. This year payment of ten per cent of each employee's gross salary will be made part in cash and part in War Bonds.

Herschel M. Duncan, president, said "We consider our family of employees our most valuable asset. Through the loyalty and co-operation of each member our organization has grown to important proportions."

The company, which commenced with eight employees and is celebrating this year its silver jubilee, is today the largest independent roaster in the Southwest and one of the biggest blenders of coffee in America.

In a letter to employees accompanying the bonus, which is being distributed this week, Duncan emphasized the increased cost of the war in 1944. He suggested that those who could, might profitably put all their portion of the company profits into War Bonds. He also spoke of the work done on war contracts by the Duncan Coffee Company, and of his and his brother's pleasure in making the gift to their employees, pointing out that unlike a corporation no ratification by stockholders was required before the gift could be made.

The policies and growth of Duncan Coffee Company were recently cited by Representative Wright Patman in an address before Congress entitled "Free Enterprise Must Prevail." Speaking of the Duncan brothers personally, Patman said "They had to establish a reputation for fair dealing and civic consciousness best illustrated in a letter to them from Gov. Coke Stevenson of Texas." Stevenson's letter related how under free, independent American enterprise the growth of an organization like Duncan Coffee Company was possible.

Among the visitors in Cameron Friday was Bentley Bryant of the Ben Arnold community. He will read the Herald for another year.

Among the new readers of the Herlad is D. M. Jinks of Clovis, New Mexico. Mr. Jinks was here visiting relatives and friends during the Christmas holidays.

Oletha Neeley and Pvt. Eddie Pratt of Bryan were visitors in the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Neeley over the week end.

HOSTESS RULES LAID DOWN FOR THE USO

Rules by which Junior Hostess girls must serve have been announced by the local USO committee of which E. C. Cole is Secretary.

Girls Service Organization is the body to govern hostess activities in the USO buildings at army camps. Girls who want to serve as hostess must first make application which must be approved by a committee from the church. The pastor will take the application to Mrs. E. C. Cole after approval. A GSO card will be issued to all girls who qualify.

Here are the rules which have just been announced by the GSO:

"The girls must not leave the building during the dance; must not leave the service club until the dance is over; the girls and their partners must dance on the dance floor only, the girls are to proceed as quickly as possible to the dance floor upon arrival; they are to remain on the dance floor as much as possible and to dance with as many boys as possible; they are not to use the service club telephones except in emergency; they are to wear badges at the dance; they must enter and leave the Service Club dance grounds on USO bus; and the visiting hostesses are to report any misconduct observed to Camp Hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nabours of Clyde in West Texas, were here to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and old friends. They moved to West Texas several years ago where Mr. Nabours is engaged in ranching. They formerly lived in the Salem community.

We are here to give the news.

3rd WAR LOAN
Buy an Extra $100 Bond ★

It's actually a matter of life or death for Americans in uniform. Once the invasion got under way we committed ourselves to the use of large numbers of troops and great stores of supplies. Any let down or crack-up in the supply trains could prove fatal.

Your job is to see to it that there is no shortage of anything needed to make the invasion swift and sure. We do not want another Bataan or Corregidor.

Get that extra War Bond today. Show that you are with our boys in this critical hour of invasion. THE EDITOR

German Battleship Scharnhorst is Sunk By the British Fleet

The German battleship Scharnhorst was sunk in the Barents sea Sunday by units of the British home fleet protecting a convoy on the route to Murmansk.

The 26,000 ton capital ship of the German navy went to the bottom in the North Cape battle after expending all her ammunition, said a Berlin broadcast.

According to the Berlin dispatch the Scharnhorst was engaged with other units of the German fleet in attacking the convoy route where Russia is receiving supplies from both England and the United States.

There was no immediate announcement from the British Amiralty. The Germans said that the battle lasted for some time and considerable damage was inflicted on the convoy and units of the British fleet.

The Scharnhorst recently figured in a sensational cruise escape through the English channel along with the Gneisenau and the cruiser Price Eugene where they had been in harbor at Brest.

Parents Urged to See "Youth In Crisis" March of Time Feature

What the war is doing to our children forms the subject matter of this month's March of Time, "Youth In Crisis," starting Thursday at the Cameron Theatre, here. In a revealing picture of the rising tide of juvenile delinquency, the film throws light on some startling temptations which beset today's wartime youth at the same time disclosing the splendid work being done by intelligent communities in providing supervised recreation.

With the draft, some interesting figures on the mental stability of our youth are revealed. Not only among selectees, but in civil life, old repressions are coming to light. Race rioting flares, misguided "V-girls" run wild, flouting parental counsel. Juvenile delinquency figures show a rise in arrests. And even venereal diseases is rising among adolescents.

The FBI's J. Edgrar Hoover says the solution to the problem must be found in the home, with the parents. Every child needs love, recognition of his achievements, outlets for his energy, and a project to absorb his attention. Many alert communities realize this, urge throwing open the schools after hours for supervised play work. Preventive agencies and child guidance clinics are invaluable to war-disrupted homes. Thus, the nation, by giving thought, can protect the youth for whose future it is fighting.
